

WORKING FOR JUSTICE IN AMERICA AND JUSTICE IN THE WORLD

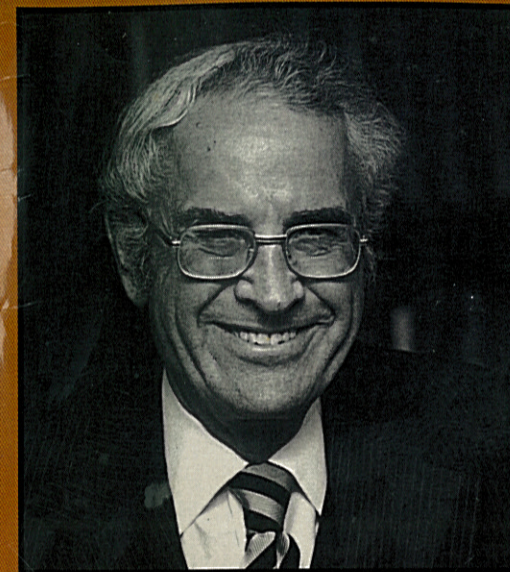

WORKING FOR JUSTICE IN AMERICA
AND JUSTICE IN THE WORLD

An Autobiography by:
Charles S. Rhyne

CHARLES S.
RHYNE

Working for Justice in America and Justice in the World.

An Autobiography by Charles S. Rhyne

Charles S. Rhyne has combined a career in litigation with a life of public service as a leader in the legal profession in America and in the world. The chapters of this autobiography set out his accomplishments and place them in the setting of national and world history.

As a litigator, Rhyne successfully argued the case of Baker v. Carr in the Supreme Court of the United States; this case, which Chief Justice Earl Warren wrote was the most important decided by the Court he led, solidified the role of federal courts in ensuring that all Americans have equal voting rights. Rhyne argued cases in the Supreme Court from 1939 through 1984 and...

(continued on back flap...)

The portrait on the jacket front is by Artzybasheff and appeared on the cover of Time magazine on May 5, 1958. It is used with the permission of Time, Copyright 1958 Time Inc.